HIPAA Compliance Notice and Protected Health Information Release Policy

All records obtained by Barnett Therapy Services become part of the client's medical record. This record may contain confidential information pertaining to the client's past medical history as well as records of the physical therapy, speech therapy, occupational therapy, counseling, evaluations, treatment and goals. Copies of this record are confidential and released only by a signed release from the client or parent if the client is a minor. In compliance with current HIPAA law, copies of your medical records, as well as verbal discussions of your treatment, may be shared with your referring physician, insurance carriers, or case managers as necessary for payment of services provided. All others requesting information will be directed to the client or parent for the appropriate signed release unless the law authorizes or compels Barnett Therapy Services to release your records without a signature.

You have the right to...

- Ask and see and get a copy of your health records
- Have corrections added to your health records
- Receive notice that tells how your health information is used and shared
- Decide whether to give your permission before your information can be used or shared for certain purposes
- Get a report on when and why your health information was shared
- Ask to be reached somewhere other than home
- Ask that your information not be shared
- File complaints
